

PARTICULARITĂȚI ALE MANAGEMENTULUI
POLIȚIEI DE FRONTIERĂ / PARTICULARITIES OF THE BORDER POLICE MANAGEMENT

Prof. univ. dr. Emilian DOBRESCU
Institutul Național de Cercetări Economice
Drd. Virgiliu PANEA

Abstract

The Ministry of Interior and Administrative Reform exerts, according to the Constitution and to the laws of the country, the attributions it is invested with such as: the defense of man's fundamental rights and freedoms, of public and private property, the implementation of the governing program and of the strategies in the field of administration and public order, and the monitoring, on behalf of the government, of the elaboration and implementation of the institutional reform programs by ministries and the other authorities of the central public administration; civil service and civil servants; activities related to land registry, geodesy and cartography; activities related to underprivileged areas and industrial parks; public order securing; protection of persons, objectives, goods and values; prevention and combating of anti-social acts; the observance of the legal regime of the state frontier; the persons' records; the legal regime of foreigners; applicants for the status of refugee and persons who have obtained a form of protection in Romania; fire prevention and civil protection of the population and goods, as well as the administration and protection of the National Archives Fund.

Keywords: border police, institutional reform, european standards participative management, analysis of managerial performance.